Muhammad Yahiya Asif

FRONT-END DEVELOPER

About Me

I am a highly motivated and dedicated MERN stack developer with 1 year of professional experience. Passionate about building scalable and efficient web applications, I possess a strong foundation in the MERN stack (MongoDB, Express.js, React, Node.js) along with proficiency in HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. Throughout my career, I have successfully developed and maintained full-stack web applications. With expertise in frontend development using React, I have built responsive and user-friendly UI components, ensuring an exceptional user experience.
